The Gaslight Theatre - July 2009 Outing: The Freedom League of America!

Our July trip to the Gaslight Theatre was once again a Model A outing (not Model A's outing) as the outing chairs brought the only one. I suspect it had something to do with a hot July night that ended up not providing a cool ride home as hoped. But as usual, the Gaslight cast put on a wonderfully insane show, with lots of opportunities to boo and cheer. There was the normal assortment of lame jokes, bad puns and budding romance, but no matter what the story, it is always fun to watch. I did wonder, however, why Mega Man was wearing his red under ware on the "outside" of his blue costume? (Must have got dressed in a hurry.) During the show, the young ladies serving to the audience provided all the popcorn ice cream, soda, and pizza you could want.

Our group was divided between the balcony and the main floor. The weapon of choice for those on the high ground was popcorn. I won't mention names but I observed someone sitting very near to me "chucking" popcorn over the rail to the waiting club members seated below. He was not alone as there was another "careying" popcorn by airmail to family members in another part of the balcony. A few pieces of popcorn did not arrive as planned and were also shared with those below. (You can dress some people up, but you cannot take them out! But we would not have it any other way.)

One member did not like his short chair and tried to take a taller one from a reserved table not yet occupied. The plan was foiled when the people showed up. Not to be deterred, he offered to buy it from them. (No Sale!) Two long time members were celebrating their anniversary. It was truly heartwarming to watch them sitting about fifteen feet from each other while the audience sang “Let Me Call You Sweetheart!”

One of the reasons the front section was reserved for so many years was due to pressure from the ladies. They wanted to be down front when Armen Dirtadian picked someone to sing to during the Olio. Armen has been missing for several years so it seemed safe to move to the back. Sorry ladies, better luck next year!

The Roberts would like to thank the 58 members and guests who attended. This was our 30th consecutive year to chair this outing. We both wish to thank the membership for their support over the years of our efforts in organizing this event. As always, a good time was had by all at the Gaslight Theatre!

Chapter Chatter:

If you were at the Gaslight Theatre you know who the "Boys will be boys" were. Throwing popcorn from the balcony, Oh my!

Did any of you hear about candy posse at the 4th of July parade on Mt. Lemmon?
