Wagon Ride Outing 11/27/2011

What a beautiful day for a wagon ride and dinner outside in the ramada. The sky was blue, the wind finally turned out to be gentle, and the temperature was perfect. The wagon was full, and I was privileged to ride up front with the driver. We had a very special gate master, our very own Jim Beebe, who offered to ride on the back of the wagon and open & close the gate leading to the trail. It was a great ride, complete with candy canes (a switch from tootsie pops to get everyone in the holiday spirit), and we actually saw some coyotes, jack rabbits and bunny rabbits, quail, and of course, horses and roping cattle.

Dinner from El Molinito's was delicious, and the bonfire afterwards was a lot of fun. We roasted marshmallows, as well as our hands, with the short skewers I provided. The Roberts were smart and brought their own stick, which was much longer, and shared it with us. As the evening progressed, the bonfire kept feeling better and better, and those of us who stayed a while longer were entertained by the owner's son & our wagon driver, with true ghost stories experienced at the ranch, as well as some of the ranch's history. Thank you, again, to all who attended and made this a fun outing. I hope you all had a good time; I sure did!

Betty Trimble
