Old Pueblo News

Mount Lemmon, Aug. 28, 2011

Thank you to all that attended our annual Mt. Lemmon breakfast. We had 58 members and guests along with 8 Model A's that escaped the heat in Tucson seeking cooler temperatures, food, fun and relaxation among the trees at the Kent's cabin. All arrived safely to be greeted with a breakfast of pancakes, eggs, sausage and biscuits with gravy.

Stomachs full, there was plenty to do with visiting, shopping, hiking and the game of horse shoes headed up by Rey Brown. The cheering section rallied around their favorite teams with Rey Brown and daughter Ashlee pulling out the win. Jack Stroehlein and Mike Fehniger in 2nd place and Ray Feierstein, son Steve and Tom Wulff won 3rd.

Carey Kent is still looking for the missing horseshoe launched by Cathy Parsons.

For lunch the club provided hot dogs and our members brought a variety of delicious foods and desserts to make sure no one went home hungry.

A world of thanks goes out to the Kents for the use of their cabin, to Carey for his back breaking work and to Linda and Lynn for preparing food the night before. We wish to thank all the helpers...Bernice Edwards, Nancy Frazer, the Roberts and to all who lent a hand to help out.

Chuck and Lynn Thim

Proposed change to the by-laws: It is proposed to eliminate having the newsletter editor as an official member of the board. It is the only position that isn't elected. The editor wouldn't be required to attend every board meeting. The proposal has to be advertised 30 days before a vote can take place. The vote will take place at the next meeting.

Gary mentioned that he would like to encourage additional participation of our membership such as outing chairpersons or officers. We have quite a large membership and it would great to have others involved.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Kent, Secretary
