Old Pueblo News

Saturday, January 26, 2013 found the Model A club traveling to Carmen for lunch at Wisdom's Café. It was a fun trip especially IF you like WATER (aka rain & lots of it)! Thirty-five people including guests attended. Five brave folks brought their Model A's. A special award to Ernie & Ann Williams who brought their daughter in the rumble seat. She insisted she did not get wet. She's from Colorado. We wonder if that had anything to do with her keeping dry in a rumble seat in the POURING RAIN. Thanks to all the brave folks, even those who drove their modern cars. The food was good as was the fellowship. Too bad if you missed the fruit chimis. One lady ate no lunch, only the fruit chimi!....(right Bonnie?). A big thanks to a wonderful club that keeps its sense of humor whether we are making wrong turns or enduring UNUSUAL weather.

WHITE ELEPHANT SALE

FOOTHILLS CLUBHOUSE—TUCSON ESTATES

Dillinger Days-1-19-13: We welcomed in the New Year with our first car show in downtown Tucson with the Dillinger Day Event. Thanks to our members and members from the Nogales and Phoenix Model A Clubs we had at least 45 vehicles. Parking was a little tricky this year, as we had parking only on 5th Ave. Spectators vocally told us how impressed they were with all the cars. Special thanks to Rey Brown and Rich Whalen in assisting with parking and thanks to Jeff Eppley and Joe Findysz for bringing more than one vehicle. At the end of the day, Johnathan Minks (John Dillinger actor) called to personally thank the club saying “the Model A Club rocks and Bud and Bill (whose vehicles were used in the reenactment) were the very best.” Thanks to all!

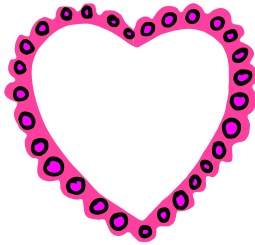

Respectfully submitted by Ray Feierstein
