White Elephant Sale

Sunday, 02/13/2022

On a beautiful Sunday morning thirty-seven (37) brave Model A'ers & Model T'ers went out in search of the elusive White Elephant. 10 A's, 2 T's & 1 V8 toured out to the house where everyone had a chance to eat to their hearts content. There was plenty of chicken and homemade side dishes, and I haven't even mentioned the homemade desserts.

After everyone had been thru the food line, at least once the hunt continued. You had a lot of good items to choose from and bid on. (Continued on page 6)

White Elephant Sale

Some were looking for something for Valentines Day and went home with something sweet for their sweetie.

With the help of Ray Feierstein & Tom McWilliams we tried to open the auction, via phone lines, to some of the members that could not attend but we didn't have much luck due to lack of quarters and a land line. We had everything you need here at a reasonable price. If you couldn't come in you're A or T because of a low tire, or you couldn't find you keys, we could help you out. If you needed some good old fashion dust collectors we had them too.

Ron Allen went home with a nice belt buckle for Valentines Day.

I think Anita Neal went home with the closes thing to a white elephant, it was this cute "yard knome " that would help guard your home. Isn't he cute!!!
